COLLECT

Let your merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of your humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions make them to ask such things as shall please you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

O T READING Genesis 4: 1—15 Jan Moss
Joseph could no longer control himself before all those who stood by him, and he cried out, 'Send everyone away from me.' So no one stayed with him when Joseph made himself known to his brothers. And he wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard it, and the household of Pharaoh heard it. Joseph said to his brothers, 'I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?' But his brothers could not answer him, so dismayed were they at his presence. Then Joseph said to his brothers, 'Come closer to me.' And they came closer. He said, 'I am your brother, Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt. And now do not be distressed, or angry with yourselves, because you sold me here; for God sent me before you to preserve life. For the famine has been in the land these two years; and there are five more years in which there will be neither ploughing nor harvest. God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant on earth, and to keep alive for you many survivors. So it was not you who sent me here, but God; he has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house and ruler over all the land of Egypt. Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, "Thus says your son Joseph, God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not delay. You shall settle in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near me, you and your children and your children's children, as well as your flocks, your herds, and all that you have. I will provide for you there – since there are five more years of famine to come – so that you and your household, and all that you have, will not come to poverty." And now your eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see that it is my own mouth that speaks to you. You must tell my father how greatly I am honoured in Egypt, and all that you have seen. Hurry and bring my father down here.' Then he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck and wept, while Benjamin wept upon his neck. And he kissed all his brothers and wept upon them; and after that his brothers talked with him.

Gradual Hymn 115 Dear Lord and Father of mankind

GOSPEL Matthew 15: 10 — 28
Then Jesus called the crowd to him and said to them, 'Listen and understand: it is not what goes into the mouth that defiles a person, but it is what comes out of the mouth that defiles.' Then the disciples approached and said to him, 'Do you know that the Pharisees took offence when they heard what you said?' He answered, 'Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted. Let them alone; they are blind guides of the blind. And if one blind person guides another, both will fall into a pit.' But Peter said to him, 'Explain this parable to us.' Then he said, 'Are you also still without understanding? Do you not see that whatever goes into the mouth enters the stomach, and goes out into the sewer? But what comes out of the mouth proceeds from the heart, and this is what defiles. For out of the heart come evil intentions, murder, adultery, fornication, theft, false witness, slander. These are what defile a person, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile.' Jesus went away to the district of Tyre and Sidon. A Canaanite woman from that region came out and started shouting, 'Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David; my daughter is tormented by a demon.' But he did not answer her at all. And his disciples came and urged him, saying, 'Send her away, for she keeps shouting after us.' He answered, 'I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.' But she came and knelt before him, saying, 'Lord, help me.' He answered, 'It is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs.' She said, 'Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table.' Then Jesus answered her, 'Woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.' And her daughter was healed instantly.

Your help is needed!

We would value as a community at All Saints if any people have the time and interest in supporting the serving teams, reading team, communion assistant team or refreshments teams. All these roles play an important part in our Sunday morning worship. If you are interested in helping please see me or Nick Kirk.

Bible Study based on Tom Wright's 'Acts for Everyone'

Next session: Saturday 30th September from 9.00am – 10.00am then 21st October from 9.30am- 10.30am. All are welcome to share. To quote Wright 'the book is full of the early excitement of Christians as they found God doing new things all over the place and learned to take the good news of Jesus around the World.' Should extra incentive be needed there will also be coffee and croissants!

Pilgrim Course On Wednesday 11th October at 7.30pm we will be starting the Pilgrim Course 'Turning to Christ'. If we set our sights on God's Kingdom of justice, mercy and peace; and as we journey home to God, the pathway of our life becomes more meaningful and joyful. This particular part of the Pilgrim course covers the Baptismal promises that mark the beginning of this journey.

OTHER NEWS

Churchyard working party Saturday 26th August 9.00am—12 noon

Following on from our very successful working party on 22nd July we would like to have a second go on 26th August. All are welcome to come along for all or part of the time to enjoy an excellent cup of coffee or tea, oh, and do bring with you any secateurs, loppers, saws, shears, gloves etc because there will be the opportunity for a little healthy exercise as well. Looking forward to seeing you there. Ken Smith

Heritage Open Days 7th—9th September

All Saints will be open as part of the national Heritage Open Days Scheme in September when many buildings throughout the country will be opening their doors. Specifically, we will be open from 10-12 on Thursday 7th September and Friday 8th September, and from 9.30 to 4.30 on Saturday 9th September, when there will be guided tours and an organ recital. The Saturday is also the day for Ride and Stride (please see below) and Stella and I are coordinating these events. All are welcome to visit. I also invite anyone who would be interested to act as greeters to support me to let me know and I will be happy to tell them a little in advance about the building.

Ken Smith

"Ride & Stride": Berkshire Churches Trust's annual fund raising event is on Saturday 9th September. If you're not familiar with this it is one day in the year when many Churches across Berkshire will open their doors for visitors arriving on foot or on tbikes. These "Riders and Striders" are sponsored for the number of Churches they visit during the day with the money raised going to BCT for their valuable work in supporting local Churches; All Saints has benefitted from this support in the past. 50% of the sponsorship money raised by anyone from All Saints will come back to us. There is information at the back of the Church for anyone who would like to take this opportunity to visit some of Berkshire's beautiful Churches – as few or as many as you would like. All Saints will be open from 9.30am to welcome visitors and to offer refreshments, and we are looking for volunteers to act as Stewards in the Church during the day. There is a sign-up sheet at the back of the Church with hourly slots, together with a sponsor sheet for you to sponsor the Stewarding Team. If you will like to find out more please speak to me, or Rod and Derek, the Church Wardens.

Saturday 28th October A Food for Thought evening here in support of OAK ( which supports our Ordinand training in Kenya) with a two course supper and presentations about OAK from Fr Robert Langton who instigated it in 2003 and Fr Jeremy who went to Kenya in 2013 as part of his sabbatical. This was first announced in early July and to date only a few people have responded. With the holiday season upon us we would really like to know if the event is going to be supported. You can pick up an OAK project brochure in Church. We look forward to hearing from you.

We've just heard that that we are now supporting two young men, Humphrey Kafusi and Benson Nyambu, as they begin a two year diploma training course. Please keep them in your prayers together with Eunice, Margaret, Patrick, Jemimah, Richard & Stephen.

FOODSHARE

Some Fridays when the collectors come our box is empty, and they have a wasted journey. Lots of people donate in supermarkets when they do their shopping, but if you have your shopping delivered our box is a great way to help families in need.
