COLLECT

Almighty God, whose most dear Son went not up to joy but first he suffered pain, and entered not into glory before he was crucified: mercifully grant that we, walking in the way of the cross, may find it none other than the way of life and peace; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit one God, now and for ever. Amen.

GOSPEL

John 4: 5 — 42

Jesus came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon. A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, 'Give me a drink.' (His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.) The Samaritan woman said to him, 'How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?' (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.) Jesus answered her, 'If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, "Give me a drink," you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water.' The woman said to him, 'Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well, and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?' Jesus said to her, 'Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life.' The woman said to him, 'Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water.' Jesus said to her, 'Go, call your husband, and come back.' The woman answered him, 'I have no husband.' Jesus said to her, 'You are right in saying, "I have no husband"; for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!' The woman said to him, 'Sir, I see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshipped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem.' Jesus said to her, 'Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.' The woman said to him, 'I know that Messiah is coming' (who is called Christ). 'When he comes, he will proclaim all things to us.' Jesus said to her, 'I am he, the one who is speaking to you.' Just then his disciples came. They were astonished that he was speaking with a woman, but no one said, 'What do you want?' or, 'Why are you speaking with her?' Then the woman left her water-jar and went back to the city. She said to the people, 'Come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done! He cannot be the Messiah, can he?' They left the city and were on their way to him. Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, 'Rabbi, eat something.' But he said to them, 'I have food to eat that you do not know about.' So the disciples said to one another, 'Surely no one has brought him something to eat?' Jesus said to them, 'My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to complete his work. Do you not say, "Four months more, then comes the harvest"? But I tell you, look around you, and see how the fields are ripe for harvesting. The reaper is already receiving wages and is gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. For here the saying holds true, "One sows and another reaps." I sent you to reap that for which you did not labour. Others have laboured, and you have entered into their labour.' Many Samaritans from that city believed in Jesus because of the woman's testimony, 'He told me everything I have ever done.' So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them; and he stayed there for two days. And many more believed because of his word. They said to the woman, 'It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the Saviour of the world.'

Father Jeremy's Notes

Saturday 4th April 9.00am – 1.00pm Parish Quiet Morning at Burnham Abbey. All welcome to prepare for Easter with this time of prayer and reflection.

Last Monday evening Elaine Williams much loved and respected member of All Saints church died peacefully at home with her family around her. Elaine has given her time, energy and love to people from the church and from the wider community. We will all miss Elaine and particularly her humour and smile and care for people. Please remember in your prayers, Stephanie and Sharon her daughters and all of her family. The funeral service will take place in church on Thursday 19th March at 12 noon .

Sad news too that John Clark's mother Heidi died last Tuesday at Wexham Park. Please remember John and Anne in your prayers at this time. The funeral Service is 25th March at 2pm Slough Crematorium

We also remember Vera Ford ,mother of Jayne Chapman who died last Monday Please remember Jayne,Pete and family in your prayers.

OTHER NOTICES

Easter Lilies

If you would like to sponsor Lilies for Easter Day in memory of your loved ones please put your name on the list on the cross aisle table and give the money to Barbara or the Church Office,(envelopes are provided with the list). This is a lovely way to be involved in making the church look really beautiful for this Queen of Festivals. It is anticipated that the lilies will cost around £4.00 per stem this year. We must order the lilies by Monday, 23 March, so it would be a great help if you could put your name on the list before that date please.

Mothering Sunday Posies

We shall be making the posies for Mothering Sunday on Saturday 21st March at 10.00am in the Parish Centre. We are always grateful for as much help as possible, so please come along and help if you can. We also require a great deal of small leafed pieces of greenery (approximately 6" long) such as Heather, Pittosporum, and perfumed leaves (rosemary etc.) so if you have any, that you or your neighbours can spare, please bring it with you or leave it at the Parish Office on Friday morning 20th March at the latest.
The Flower Team

Birinus Garden Easter Cards

The blank cards have sold well and cards are now available to order as Easter cards with a Happy Easter greeting and quotation from Matthew. They are priced at £1.10 per card or £5.00 for five. All proceeds go towards Project Galilee (the Floor). There is a separate order sheet at the rear of the church. Jeremy and Sue Nordberg

Save the date! 4th July 2020 - All Saints Summer fete returns. Please start thinking of ways you might contribute. Julia

Windsor and Maidenhead Community Forum Women's Group

Ladies of all beliefs and none are warmly invited to our next meeting at St. Edmund Campion Church Altwood Road, Maidenhead, SL6 4PY from 7.30—9.00 pm on Monday 16th March 2020 when we will hear about the work of Fr. Liam Cummings, in a women's prison.Further details from: sally514@btinternet.com www.wamcf.org

Planned Giving

Thank you to all those who support the work and mission of All Saints Church through planned giving. If your tax status has changed in the last year, please will you let me know so that I can amend our gift aid records accordingly. If you do not support All Saints by planned giving and would like to join one of our schemes, please will you speak to me for further information. By committing your giving on a regular basis, it allows the financial team to fund the smooth running of the church and to plan for all eventualities. Many thanks. Sue Stannett

Tuesday 17th March 7.00pm Eucharist in Lent followed by Art Course based on the "Walking the Way of the Cross" book by Stephen Cottrell, Paula Gooder and Philip North. Both the service and the course will take place in the Church.
