COLLECT

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us your gift of faith that, forsaking what lies behind and reaching out to that which is before, we may run the way of your commandments and win the crown of everlasting joy; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

OT READING

Genesis 32: 22—31

Stella Harding

At night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, 'Let me go, for the day is breaking.' But Jacob said, 'I will not let you go, unless you bless me.' So he said to him, 'What is your name?' And he said, 'Jacob.' Then the man said, 'You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed.' Then Jacob asked him, 'Please tell me your name.' But he said, 'Why is it that you ask my name?' And there he blessed him. So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, 'For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved.' The sun rose upon him as he passed Peniel, limping because of his hip.

GOSPEL

Luke 18: 1 — 8

Jesus told his disciples a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. He said, 'In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, "Grant me justice against my opponent." For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, "Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming."'

And the Lord said, 'Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?'

Saturday Morning Bible Study Principles of Deep Water Fishing
Continues on 26th October (weeks 2& 3 of the course written by Bishop Steven) beginning with breakfast at 9.30am in the Birinus Room, and followed, at 10.30am, by a Simple Mass.

Please note that the latest edition of Pathways (Oxford Diocesan magazine) is available in church. The theme is 'Nurturing every child in our schools and churches'. Schools Ministry is one of our 3 strands for mission at All Saints.

OTHER NEWS

The Galilee Project, or We Want To Fix The Floor. Please return your pledge forms by the end of October, or pick one up from the back of the church if you need one. The amount pledged by you in the first weeks after launch will be announced on All Saints Day - Sunday 3rd November.

Christmas cards of the lovely scene by Reg Denison of the quadrangle in the snow are at the back of the Church for you to order, also Tile Shop Sheets so that you can invite your friends and family to join in. And please have a look at the 'Tap for a Tile' contactless machine so that you can explain it to your friends. All to support the floor restoration. We will do it with God's help.
