O God, the strength of all those who put their trust in you, mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace, that in the keeping of your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit one God, now and for ever. Amen.

GOSPEL Mark 2: 23 — 3: 6

One sabbath Jesus was going through the cornfields; and as they made their way his disciples began to pluck heads of grain. The Pharisees said to him, 'Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the sabbath?' And he said to them, 'Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need of food? He entered the house of God, when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and he gave some to his companions.' Then he said to them, 'The sabbath was made for humankind and not humankind for the sabbath; so the Son of Man is lord even of the sabbath.' Again he entered the synagogue, and a man was there who had a withered hand. They watched him to see whether he would cure him on the sabbath, so that they might accuse him. And he said to the man who had the withered hand, 'Come forward.' Then he said to the Pharisees, 'Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the sabbath, to save life or to kill?' But they were silent. He looked around at them with anger; he was grieved at their hardness of heart and said to the man, 'Stretch out your hand.' He stretched it out, and his hand was restored. The Pharisees went out and immediately conspired with the Herodians against Jesus, how to destroy him.

Sermon Fr Jeremy

Offertory Hymn 356 Father, Lord of all Creation

Communion Hymn

1. She sits like a bird, brooding on the waters,
hovering on the chaos of the world's first day ;
she sighs and she sings,
mothering creation,
waiting to give birth to all the Word will say.

2. She wings over earth,
resting where she wishes, lighting close at hand or soaring through the skies ;
she nests in the womb,
welcoming each wonder,
nourishing potential hidden to our eyes.

3. She dances in fire,
startling her spectators,
waking tongues of ecstasy where dumbness reigned ;
she weans and inspires
all whose hearts are open, nor can she be captured, silenced, or restrained.

4. For she is the Spirit,
one with God in essence, gifted by the Saviour in eternal love ;
and she is the key
opening the Scriptures, enemy of apathy and heavenly dove.

John L. Bell (b. 1949) and Graham Maule (b. 1958)

Closing Hymn

1. Lord, the light of Your love is shining
in the midst of the darkness, shining; Jesus, Light of the World, shine upon us, set us free by the truth You now bring us,
shine on me, shine on me.

*Shine, Jesus, shine, fill this land with the Father's glory;
blaze, Spirit blaze,
set our hearts on fire.
Flow, river, flow,
flood the nations with grace and mercy;
send forth Your word,
Lord, and let there be light.*

2. Lord, I come to Your awesome presence,
from the shadows into Your radiance;
by the blood I may enter Your brightness, search me, try me, consume all my darkness.
Shine on me, shine on me.

3. As we gaze on Your kingly brightness so our faces display Your likeness, ever changing from glory to glory, mirrored here may our lives tell Your story.
Shine on me, shine on me.
