Opening Hymn

Fling wide the gates, unbar the ancient doors;

salute your king in his triumphant cause !

1. Now all the world belongs to Christ our Lord :
let all creation greet the living Word !

2. Who has the right to worship him today ?

All those who gladly serve him and obey.

3. He comes to save all those who trust his name,
and will declare them free from guilt and shame.

4. Who is the victor glorious from the fight ?

He is our king , our life, our Lord, our right !

*Michael Perry (1942-1996)
based on Psalm 24 (A Song of the King's Glory)*

The Lighting of the Advent Candle

John the Baptist, by his preaching and by water poured,

brought to those who heard his teaching
news of hope restored:

'Keep your vision strong and steady,
and be ready for the Lord.'

Mark Earey (b 1965)

After this Young Saints (3 years & over) go to the Birinus Room

COLLECT

O Lord Jesus Christ, who at your first coming sent your messenger to prepare your way before you: grant that the ministers and stewards of your mysteries may likewise so prepare and make ready your way by turning the hearts of the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, that at your second coming to judge the world we may be found an acceptable people in your sight; for you are alive and reign with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

Gradual Hymn	31 Come, thou long-expected— Jesus
GOSPEL	John 1.6–8, 19–28
	There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. This is the testimony given by John when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, 'Who are you?' He confessed and did not deny it, but confessed, 'I am not the Messiah.' And they asked him, 'What then? Are you Elijah?' He said, 'I am not.' 'Are you the prophet?' He answered, 'No.' Then they said to him, 'Who are you? Let us have an answer for those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?' He said, 'I am the voice of one crying out in the wilderness, "Make straight the way of the Lord,"' as the prophet Isaiah said. Now they had been sent from the Pharisees. They asked him, 'Why then are you baptizing if you are neither the Messiah, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?' John answered them, 'I baptize with water. Among you stands one whom you do not know, the one who is coming after me; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandal.' This took place in Bethany across the Jordan where John was baptizing.
SERMON	The Rt Revd Andrew Proud, Bishop of Reading
Offertory Hymn	26 O come, O come, Emmanuel
Anthem	Hark the glad sound	D Thorne
Closing Hymn
1. You shall go out with joy and come again in peace ; the mountains and the hills shall sing and never cease ; the Son of God is ris'n again, his love has conquered death's domain.	3. The Word, like rain or snow, has come down from above, and now reveals to all God's purposes of love ; the Word made flesh, once dead, now lives, new life to all he freely gives.
2. The trees in every field shall clap their hands, and say 'Come shout aloud, and help us celebrate this day !' Jesus, the King, has burst the grave, and lives once more to heal and save.	4. The myrtle for the briar, the cypress for the thorn, shall rise to tell the world of its awaking dawn. Jesus, the Life, the Truth, the Way, has ushered in God's great new day.
	N.T. Wright (b. 1948) based on Isaiah 55.10-13
Refreshments will be served at the back of the Church thanks to Doreen Jamieson & Anne Pennock

Father Jeremy's Notes

Church Running Costs and Planned Giving - a big thank you to everyone who gives so generously to help support the life and mission of All Saints. Not everyone may be aware that the Church costs around £2,500 per week to run, including ministry, normal buildings and operational costs. Whilst we fortunately receive some rental income that helps offset some of these costs; for the great majority of our income we rely upon regular giving from our congregation. It is very helpful, where possible, for giving to be made in planned way through the bank, which helps planning around a certainty of income. If you feel able to help by either starting, or converting, to planned giving via the bank the forms are available on the table at the back of the Church.

As we approach Christmas you might like to consider making a one-off gift to the Church alongside gifts to your family and friends. Gift Aid envelopes are available to make your gift go further.

Notes from the Flower Fairies

1. Decorating the church for Christmas We shall be decorating the church for Christmas on Tuesday 23rd December from 9.30 am and shall be most grateful for any help you can give us. No experience is needed, we shall be there to help you. Also, we are in need of greenery, particularly holly or variegated colours. Please bring any you have, or are able to acquire from friends and neighbours, to the church by 9.30 am or leave it outside the vestry door the day before. Many thanks for your assistance, we look forward to seeing you.

2. Flowers for 2015 The Flower Rota for 2015 is on the cross aisle table and we shall be grateful if you will add your name to the week you wish to sponsor. This is a very appropriate way to remember loved ones we no longer see, and to celebrate anniversaries, birthdays etc. Sponsoring a week ensures that we are able to have flowers in the church on that Sunday and relieves the PCC Funds of any cost whatsoever. I am sure you are aware of the pleasure the flowers give to everyone and thank you for your support. The Rota has been on the table for a week or so and is already filling up!
