COLLECT

O God, who by the leading of a star manifested your only Son to the peoples of the earth: mercifully grant that we, who know you now by faith, may at last behold your glory face to face; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God now and for ever. Amen

OLD TESTAMENT READING Isaiah 60: 1—6     Roger Simpson
Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you. For darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the LORD will arise upon you, and his glory will appear over you. Nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn. Lift up your eyes and look around; they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far away, and your daughters shall be carried on their nurses' arms. Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and rejoice, because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you. A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come. They shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praise of the LORD.

Anthem                                      From the rising of the sun                      F A G Ousley

GOSPEL                                      Matthew 2: 1—12

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, 'Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage.' When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, 'In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet: "And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel." Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, 'Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.' When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure-chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

Sermon                      Revd Debbie

Offertory Hymn

1. We three Kings of Orient are;
bearing gifts we traverse afar,
field and fountain, moor and mountain,
following yonder star.

*O Star of wonder, star of night,
star with royal beauty bright,
westward leading, still proceeding,
guide us to thy perfect light.*

2. Born a King on Bethlehem plain,
gold I bring, to crown him again,
King for ever, ceasing never,
over us all to reign.

3. Frankincense to offer have I,
Incense owns a Deity nigh.
Prayer and praising, all men raising,
worship him, God most high.

4. Myrrh is mine, its bitter perfume breathes a life of gathering gloom;
sorrowing, sighing, bleeding, dying,
sealed in the stone-cold tomb.

5. Glorious now behold him arise,
King and God and sacrifice;
alleluia, alleluia,
earth to heaven replies.

John Henry Hopkins (1822-1900)

Communion Hymn      49 O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness

Closing Hymn            47 Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,

Organ Postlude            Wie schön leuchtet der Morgenstern I            R Clark

OTHER NEWS

Flower Rota 2012 The new Flower Rota is on the table at the back of the church. If you would like to sponsor the flowers for a week, possibly in memory of a loved one or to celebrate a special anniversary, please put your name against the week you have chosen. Sponsorship relieves the church funds of any cost in connection with flowers and enables us to enjoy a fresh arrangement each week. Thank you for your support.

Barbara Bannister

Mothers' Union. A Happy New Year to you all. Blanket sewing in St Luke's church room from 1.00pm to 4.00pm on Monday 9th January. If anyone has any bits and pieces of wool to spare, please remember us - every little helps. Last year we made over 2,000 blankets which went all over the world - in fact, where ever there was a disaster, so it is a very worthy cause. The next meeting will be in the Parish Centre on Wednesday 11th January at 2.30pm, when Edna Conibear will be showing slides and telling us about her recent visit to Australia.

Ena Jones

Children's Society Boxes: If you still have a box you would like emptied, please bring them to church and pass to me or leave them in the parish office for me to collect. Thank you for your continued support.

Digital TV Switchover from analogue will take place in the Meridian area in February and the London area in April and from then if you have a TV which has five or fewer channels it will not work. You will probably already have received a leaflet but, just to remind you, those who are 75 or over, or get certain disability allowances, can have their set converted for a standard fee of £40 by a certified installer. Those eligible for this can actually get it free if they are on job-seeker's allowance, pension credit or income support. For further information visit www.helpscheme.co.uk or call 0800 40 85 900.
